President Harry S. Truman
219 North Delaware Street
Independence, Missouri

Dear President Truman:

Bill Hillman's death is a great loss to many people, but greater, I feel sure, to his immediate family and to you. His admiration and respect for you had no bounds.

It was stimulating in these times to find so honest a man who always spoke highly of his Chief.

I am happy to have had Bill as a friend for some thirty years. Our Country is better for his having been here. May his soul rest in peace.

To you, Sir, every good wish.

Faithfully,

Stanley J. Grogan
Assistant to the Director
